

GREATER BOSTON ACADEMY
FINANCIAL INFORMATION
2006-07

TUITION AND REGISTRATION RATES

Full payment or payment plan enrollment is due at Registration.
The Registration Fee is also due at Registration.

Registration fee.....	$150
Constituent SDA.....	$7,005
Non-constituent SDA.....	$7520
Non-SDA.....	$8755

The three different rates reflect direct subsidies to the school by participating churches in the Southern New England Conference. Check to see what your church offers.

DEPOSIT – A $50 per student deposit is due and payable at the time of application or Re-application. This amount will be deducted from the Registration fee.

In addition to the above charges, there are miscellaneous charges such as $15 locker deposit per student, fees for uniform shirts, etc. Textbooks must be purchased separately and are the responsibility of the student and his/her parents or guardians.

DISCOUNTS

FAMILY DISCOUNTS - Families with more than one child attending Edgewood School and/or Greater Boston Academy will receive a discount on tuition for each additional child at the rates shown below:

- 2 children = 5% each
- 3 children = 10% each
- 4+ children = 15% each

PRE-PAYMENT TUITION DISCOUNT - A 5% discount will be applied when an entire year's tuition is paid by August 15

SECONDARY EDUCATION TRUST FUNDS – Each student who is a member of a Seventh-day Adventist church in the Southern New England Conference is eligible to receive a subsidy from the Secondary Education Trust Fund. This comes in two payments, one in December and one in April. The amount of these payments varies, depending on the number of students who apply. Please note that the parents or guardians must fill out the application twice each year to receive these funds.

MATCHING FUNDS – There are a limited number of two-way and three-way matching funds available. Please ask the business office for information regarding these funds.